Sustainability Club

Our Sustainability Club has truly outdone themselves!

In a recent sustainability session, these amazing young minds embarked on an imaginative and sustainable project. Using treasures found around the school grounds such as flowers, leaves, and more, they carefully crafted nature-inspired wind chimes.

Imagine clear contact sheets filled with their discoveries, snugly encased within metal jar lids. The result? Absolutely enchanting wind chimes that capture the beauty of our surroundings.

What's even more heartwarming is that not only did these little artists take their creations home to enjoy, but they generously made an extra wind chime to adorn our community garden arch.

Let's give a big round of applause to our Sustainability Club for spreading joy and celebrating our environment in such a beautiful, harmonious way!

A massive shout out to the lovely ladies and gentlemen who work tirelessly in the Tuckshop and bring smiles to all the little faces every day in our Wilston community.

With the phenomenal Lyndall at the helm, and the amazing team of Dot, Lucia, and Sophie by her side, as well as the countless volunteers throughout the year, their dedication and hard work make our P&C operated Tuckshop the special place it is.

Their unwavering commitment to serving up delicious treats and nourishing snacks and meals for Wilston Kids Care and the wider community doesn't go unnoticed. We wanted to take a moment today to appreciate and value their amazing efforts.

Thank you, Lyndall, and the Tuckshop Team, for all that you do for Wilston Kids Care.

This year, the school decided to try something different by hosting this event in the morning, and it was a resounding success with an enthusiastic turnout of Prep 2024 families buzzing around Junior playground with excitement for the year ahead!

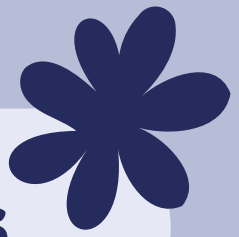

At Wilston Kids Care, we strongly believe in the power of community collaboration. We've had the pleasure of working closely with our fellow Business Units - Tuckshop, Uniform Shop, and the Pool, as well as the P&C Operations Manager and the Junior Wilston State School Leadership Team. Together, we are committed to making these transition experiences memorable and enjoyable for all involved.
