Vacation Care Tip

With Vacation Care rapidly approaching, we want to ensure that your child has a fantastic and worry-free experience. Here's a little insight into our clothing requirements to make sure your child can fully embrace the adventure:

1. We prioritise your child's independence and self-sufficiency. When selecting their outfits, consider clothing that they can easily put on and take off by themselves, especially for swimming days.
2. Some activities involve paint, glue, sand, water, and other materials. Having the right clothes will make the experience even more enjoyable. A spare set of clothes is encouraged!
3. Your child will be engaged in active play, including running, climbing, jumping, swinging, and must wear sun-smart clothing to stay protected. We want them to be comfortable and free to move, explore, and have a blast.

Additionally, to avoid any mix-ups or lost items, we kindly request that you label all your children's clothing and accessories, including footwear. This simple step ensures that everything finds its way back to the right child.

If you have any questions or need further assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out to our Administration Team via email at wkc.admin@wilstonpandc.org.au

Elf on the Shelf – Jingles Adventures

04/12/23

Guess who decided to spend their weekend with us in the office? Jingle the Elf! He was captivated by all the fantastic Christmas decorations we adorned to celebrate the festive season. Jingle, being considerate as ever, made sure not to arrive empty-handed—he brought along letters straight from the North Pole! We seized the opportunity to document our kindest moments, which will be hand-delivered to Santa. This ensures our chance to secure a spot on the nice list before he embarks on his journey!

If you happened to miss out on this activity, don't worry! We encourage you to contribute by dropping a letter of your own into the post-box at the admin's desk. Your thoughts and wishes will be warmly welcomed.

01/12/23

This morning brought an unexpected delight! Jingle the Elf, our special friend from the North Pole, was found in B-block, accompanied by an intriguing note. The note outlines Jingle's mission to visit our school, assessing the kindness of our wonderful children before Santa sets out on his journey!

We invite everyone to stay vigilant for Jingle as he begins his adventure at Wilston Kids Care, exploring everything our exceptional service has to offer. Remember, he's always watching, so let's all be on our best behaviour and share kindness!
