

PARENT CONDUCT

Wilston Primary P&C Association provide a safe and healthy workplace for employees and a caring and supportive environment for children and families. Wilston P&C Association has a zero-tolerance policy towards any acts of violence or threatening behaviour. This includes physical and verbal acts of harassment towards the staff, volunteers and any other person present on school premises. Any person who carries out such behaviour will be reported to the P&C Executive and further action may be taken.

Parents are expected to communicate appropriately with all staff whilst dropping off or collecting children, or other children as permitted to and from Wilston State School.

Appropriate communication shall include, but not limited to:

- Appropriate language (in the vicinity of staff/children)
- Calm and considerate tone
- Engaging staff respectfully
- Escalating complaints to management
